

Dr. Patricia Murugami

Patricia is the Chief Executive Officer of Breakthrough Consulting Solutions Group, a firm that provides board & c-suite leadership advisory services (www.bcslgroup.com). She is also the Regional Academic Director of the Women in Leadership Portfolio of Programs and Senior Faculty in the area of Authentic, Transformational, Inclusive and Sustainable Leadership at Strathmore Business School (SBS). Prior to this she has been the Advisor to the Dean and the Vice Dean, Executive Talent Development at SBS as well as other roles in leading consulting and manufacturing firms. She is also an experienced, internationally certified executive Transformational Coach serving senior leaders across the globe.

Dr. Murugami holds a Doctorate in Business Administration (DBA- Leadership, Authenticity and Governance) from International School of Management, France. She is a TEDx Fellow having represented Africa by sharing her leadership ideas at TEDx-IESE in Barcelona and hosts a YouTube channel called Breakthrough with Patricia Murugami dedicated to raising leadership potential through digital media. She is married to Murugami for a decade and a half and they are intentionally bringing up their children.